

Everyone Was Right

Words and Music Pat Drummond and Karen Frencham
Dateline: Shellharbour Thurs, 25th May 1999

Everybody thought they knew
By the way I looked at you
I guess we weren't all that bright
We said everyone was wrong
But everyone was right

With all that magic out on show how were we the last to know Till you came to me that night
We thought everyone was wrong
But everyone was right

Bridge: Everybody thought that they knew
by the way I looked at you
We both swore it wasn't true Goes to show how much we knew

Now every kiss I ever stole when you gave me your hand to hold each of those long impassioned nights
You can't tell me it was wrong cause everyone was right

Instrumental

Repeat Bridge: and Last Verse
